

GREAT GARDENS OF THE WORLD

Welcome, fellow garden enthusiasts! We hope that anticipation of Great Gardens of the World will bring some relief from our present, very difficult, circumstances.

At this time, we hope that our first biweekly meeting will be on Thursday September 17th from 2-4 pm in our new home, Tartu College, entering by the Madison Street doors.

Along with this letter, you will find a bibliography and an eclectic list of possible subjects for your presentation, to pique your curiosity. These lists are by no means exhaustive, so feel free to explore your own preferences.

We have also attached a blank schedule and encourage you to choose a subject and time spot as soon as possible. First come, first served!

Please reply to us both, to avoid scheduling duplications

This will obviously be a very visual workshop, illustrated by many beautiful garden photos. However, we also want to learn, in your 20-minute presentation, about the history, design, legends, romances and even scandals associated with your chosen garden. We hope to maintain some semblance of chronology so that we can observe trends and influences. Therefore, we would like to focus initially on gardens established before the 20th Century.

If you have any questions, or just to say 'hello', please contact us. We are looking forward to meeting you. Stay safe and well.
